

City Hall, City of Lodi
Monday December 5th., 1921.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi was called to order by the President at 8 o'clock P.M., at the place and on the date above written and on call of the roll there were present Trustees, Montgomery, Crose, Hale and Hickok, Trustee Rich absent on account of illness.

The minutes on the regular adjourned meeting of November 28th were read and approved without correction.

In the matter of the Improvement of Main Street under Resolution of Intention No. 51; it appearing that the notice of the filing of the list of unpaid assessments had been duly filed, the same posted and published and certain assessments paid thereafter, the Board proceeded to find that the amount of the unpaid assessments was $5,669.43 by the passage of Resolution No. 202, more particularly set forth therein, by the following vote:

AYES: Crose, Hickok, Hale, Montgomery.
NOES: None. Absent: Rich.

Immediately after the passage of the above, the Board provided for the issuance of improvement bonds to represent the amount of the unpaid assessments in the Main Street District by the passage of Resolution No. 203, now on file with the City Clerk, by the following vote:

AYES: Hale, Hickok, Crose, Montgomery.
NOES: None. Absent: Rich.

A petition purporting to be signed by more than 50% of the property owners fronting on Hilborn Street was presented and referred to the Clerk for report on frontage represented.

The Clerk was instructed to prepare a resolution and present the same at the next meeting, changing the name of Grand Avenue to Central Avenue.

Monthly reports from the Marshal, Fire Chief and Plumbing Inspector were read and ordered filed.

J.C. Bewley & Company addressed a communication to the Board asking that the insurance on the new fire truck be placed with them; the matter was referred to J.S. Montgomery and F.O. Hale.

H.E. Ralls filed an application for the position of driver on the new fire truck.

The proprietor of the "Goodfellows Grill" protested against lunch wagons on the streets and the matter was taken under advisement until the next regular meeting.

Ten building permits were granted for buildings at an estimated cost of $16,660.00.

Claims to the amount of $13,888.67 having been passed by a majority of the auditing committee, were allowed on motion of Trustee Hale.

A proposed ordinance providing for collection of city taxes was presented by the City Attorney and at the order of the Board was laid over until the next regular meeting.

The Clerk was instructed to notify the Sacramento Gas Company that the provisions of Ordinance No. 63 would be hereafter strictly enforced and the Marshal notified to see that the same was complied with especially as to the posting of funds to guarantee proper repair of streets.

Adjournment was then taken to the date of the next regular meeting.

Attest

J. F. Bewley
Clerk.
